

R. P. & C. ROAD IN MANCHESTER

The Street Committee Considers Its Petition.

NO DECIDED ACTION TAKEN.

The Council to be Convened Very Soon to Pass on the Question — Mr. Tally and His Stone Quarry—Other Southerly News.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times.

The Street Committee of Manchester held an important meeting last night to consider the ordinance presented by the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina railroad in regard to its right of way through the city.

All of the members of the committee were present, and after hearing from Engineer Seymour, of the road, and Mr. A. L. Adamson, they went into secret session and were engaged for a considerable length of time in examining the ordinance.

ERECT A DEPOT.

It was found that the ordinance, in the preamble, agrees to erect a freight and passenger depot in Manchester, but no mention of the matter is made in the body of the paper. There were also some questions of grade to be disposed of.

The ordinance was accordingly referred to City-Attorney Clopton and Engineer Seymour for amendment.

Mr. Seymour asked that a meeting of the Council to consider the question be called as speedily as possible, and President Franklin promised to convene the body immediately upon the presentation of or a petition signed by as many as five members.

Another matter considered by the committee was the request of Edward Tally to be allowed to open a stone quarry at the end of Cowardin avenue. The committee will report its conclusions at the next meeting of the Council.

FUNERAL OF MR. ANDREWS.

Mr. H. B. Andrews, after a short illness, died at his residence, No. 307 west Thirtieth street, Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock, aged 35 years. The deceased was a well-known engineer, and had many friends who regret his death.

He leaves his wife and four young children, Mrs. Brothers—Messrs. E. J., O. J., S. H. and S. E. Andrews, of Manchester, and Wm. E. of Chesterfield—one sister—Mrs. J. D. Marsh, of Chesterfield.

The funeral took place from Fifth Street Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Revs. J. S. Wallace and J. A. Spencer. The interment was in Maury cemetery.

Wm. Barnes, colored, was playfully wrestling with a companion up upper Hull street Saturday evening when he was thrown heavily to the ground. In the fall his collar bone was broken in two places. He went to the office of Dr. Lawrence Ingram, who, in the capacity of City Physician, treated him and sent him home.

Mr. B. M. Robinson, whose name has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the Legislature, is not a candidate. He says his business is such as to prevent his giving the proper attention to the place.

BIRTHDAY BOXES.

On next Thursday night the birthday boxes distributed among the members of Clifton-Street Baptist church will be opened by the Ladies' Aid Society, at which time an entertainment will be given in connection with the exercises.

Mr. Simpson of Richmond, who delighted in Clifton street, will be in a recent entertainment will be present, and a musical program, which will be very entertaining, will also be rendered.

The exercises will take place in the large yard of Judge Gregory, opposite the church. No admission fee will be charged. These boxes when opened will be turned over to the benefit of the church and the church will then be in a position to look for a pastor, as it has been their intention not to call a pastor while they were here.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday morning a colored woman named Jaelah Hix, was fined $2 for being disorderly and obstructive.

The case of Charles Robinson, colored, who was alleged to have assaulted young W. H. Canady several weeks ago, was dismissed, as no evidence to his guilt was forthcoming.

In the day Rachael Hix swore out a warrant before Suire Litigow against Nelson Cheatham, colored, charging him with threatening and abusing her. This case will be heard this morning.

INFANT DEAD.

Charles J. Hill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo L. Waltrip, died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock at the residence of his parents, 26 east Ninth street.

The funeral took place Sunday morning from the above number at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. T. Wallace officiating.

Rev. James E. McCullough, of Vanderbilt University, began a series of revival services at Asbury church last night.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Nunnelly is very ill at the residence, No. 18 east Fourth street.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. T. F. Clark and Miss Lucy Robinson, both of Dinwiddie county. These young people have a host of friends in Manchester.

PICNIC ON THE FOURTH.

Pickett Camp will go to Centraria in Chesterfield County.

Pickett Camp's meeting was well attended last night. Commander Johnson presided and Chaplain Winston offered the prayer.

One of Colonel Comrade John E. Whittleton's sons of Comrade John E. Whittleton was re-appointed to Meade's School. He was highly recommended.

Major W. H. H. Sherrill, of Company G, Third Virginia Infantry, was elected a member of the Camp.

The Camp accepted the invitation of Mr. H. C. Lyne to hold a basket picnic on his premises at Centraria on July 4th. They will have the opportunity of visiting Drovers' Gliff on this occasion.

PROPERTY TRANSACTIONS.

Richmond: A. S. Crawford and Wm. W. Layne and wife, 18 feet on east side Buchanan street, 15 feet south of Jay, $400.

John Tyler's trustee to Jia W. Allison, deceased, 45 feet 6 inches on south side Canal street between Tenth and Eleventh streets, $550.

Sands & Howards, special commissioners, to W. D. Harton, 32 feet on Concord street between Baldwin and Lownes, $50.

Benkins: Thomas F. Boyce and wife to Harry T. Jackson, 21 1/2 feet on east side Thirty-sixth street, 19 1/2-22 feet south of Marshall, $160.

Royal Tribe to Meet.

Richmond Lodge, Royal Tribe of Joseph, will meet at Smithfield's Hall, corner of Ninth and Broad streets, to-night. It will be open to all, and Colonel R. B. Powell, the Supreme Organizer, will make a brief address and refreshments will be served.

AUCTION SALE—This Day.

By C. L. & H. L. Denoon
Real Estate Auctioneers.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THE Well-Located Frame Dwelling No. 509 Randolph St.,

WITH LARGE LOT ADJOINING.
The Street Committee Considers Its Petition.

NO DECIDED ACTION TAKEN.

The Council to be Convened Very Soon to Pass on the Question — Mr. Tally and His Stone Quarry—Other Southerly News.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times.

The Street Committee of Manchester held an important meeting last night to consider the ordinance presented by the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina railroad in regard to its right of way through the city.

All of the members of the committee were present, and after hearing from Engineer Seymour, of the road, and Mr. A. L. Adamson, they went into secret session and were engaged for a considerable length of time in examining the ordinance.

ERECT A DEPOT.

It was found that the ordinance, in the preamble, agrees to erect a freight and passenger depot in Manchester, but no mention of the matter is made in the body of the paper. There were also some questions of grade to be disposed of.

The ordinance was accordingly referred to City-Attorney Clopton and Engineer Seymour for amendment.

Mr. Seymour asked that a meeting of the Council to consider the question be called as speedily as possible, and President Franklin promised to convene the body immediately upon the presentation of or a petition signed by as many as five members.

Another matter considered by the committee was the request of Edward Tally to be allowed to open a stone quarry at the end of Cowardin avenue. The committee will report its conclusions at the next meeting of the Council.

FUNERAL OF MR. ANDREWS.

Mr. H. B. Andrews, after a short illness, died at his residence, No. 307 west Thirtieth street, Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock, aged 35 years. The deceased was a well-known engineer, and had many friends who regret his death.

He leaves his wife and four young children, Mrs. Brothers—Messrs. E. J., O. J., S. H. and S. E. Andrews, of Manchester, and Wm. E. of Chesterfield—one sister—Mrs. J. D. Marsh, of Chesterfield.

The funeral took place from Fifth Street Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Revs. J. S. Wallace and J. A. Spencer. The interment was in Maury cemetery.

Wm. Barnes, colored, was playfully wrestling with a companion up upper Hull street Saturday evening when he was thrown heavily to the ground. In the fall his collar bone was broken in two places. He went to the office of Dr. Lawrence Ingram, who, in the capacity of City Physician, treated him and sent him home.

Mr. B. M. Robinson, whose name has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the Legislature, is not a candidate. He says his business is such as to prevent his giving the proper attention to the place.

BIRTHDAY BOXES.

On next Thursday night the birthday boxes distributed among the members of Clifton-Street Baptist church will be opened by the Ladies' Aid Society, at which time an entertainment will be given in connection with the exercises.

Mr. Simpson of Richmond, who delighted in Clifton street, will be in a recent entertainment will be present, and a musical program, which will be very entertaining, will also be rendered.

The exercises will take place in the large yard of Judge Gregory, opposite the church. No admission fee will be charged. These boxes when opened will be turned over to the benefit of the church and the church will then be in a position to look for a pastor, as it has been their intention not to call a pastor while they were here.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday morning a colored woman named Jaelah Hix, was fined $2 for being disorderly and obstructive.

The case of Charles Robinson, colored, who was alleged to have assaulted young W. H. Canady several weeks ago, was dismissed, as no evidence to his guilt was forthcoming.

In the day Rachael Hix swore out a warrant before Suire Litigow against Nelson Cheatham, colored, charging him with threatening and abusing her. This case will be heard this morning.

INFANT DEAD.

Charles J. Hill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo L. Waltrip, died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock at the residence of his parents, 26 east Ninth street.

The funeral took place Sunday morning from the above number at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. T. Wallace officiating.

Rev. James E. McCullough, of Vanderbilt University, began a series of revival services at Asbury church last night.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Nunnelly is very ill at the residence, No. 18 east Fourth street.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. T. F. Clark and Miss Lucy Robinson, both of Dinwiddie county. These young people have a host of friends in Manchester.

PICNIC ON THE FOURTH.

Pickett Camp will go to Centraria in Chesterfield County.

Pickett Camp's meeting was well attended last night. Commander Johnson presided and Chaplain Winston offered the prayer.

One of Colonel Comrade John E. Whittleton's sons of Comrade John E. Whittleton was re-appointed to Meade's School. He was highly recommended.

Major W. H. H. Sherrill, of Company G, Third Virginia Infantry, was elected a member of the Camp.

The Camp accepted the invitation of Mr. H. C. Lyne to hold a basket picnic on his premises at Centraria on July 4th. They will have the opportunity of visiting Drovers' Gliff on this occasion.

PROPERTY TRANSACTIONS.

Richmond: A. S. Crawford and Wm. W. Layne and wife, 18 feet on east side Buchanan street, 15 feet south of Jay, $400.

John Tyler's trustee to Jia W. Allison, deceased, 45 feet 6 inches on south side Canal street between Tenth and Eleventh streets, $550.

Sands & Howards, special commissioners, to W. D. Harton, 32 feet on Concord street between Baldwin and Lownes, $50.

Benkins: Thomas F. Boyce and wife to Harry T. Jackson, 21 1/2 feet on east side Thirty-sixth street, 19 1/2-22 feet south of Marshall, $160.

Royal Tribe to Meet.

Richmond Lodge, Royal Tribe of Joseph, will meet at Smithfield's Hall, corner of Ninth and Broad streets, to-night. It will be open to all, and Colonel R. B. Powell, the Supreme Organizer, will make a brief address and refreshments will be served.

AUCTION SALES—Future Days.

By C. L. & H. L. Denoon
Real Estate Auctioneers.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THE Well-Located Frame Dwelling No. 509 Randolph St.,

WITH LARGE LOT ADJOINING.
The Street Committee Considers Its Petition.

NO DECIDED ACTION TAKEN.

The Council to be Convened Very Soon to Pass on the Question — Mr. Tally and His Stone Quarry—Other Southerly News.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times.

The Street Committee of Manchester held an important meeting last night to consider the ordinance presented by the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina railroad in regard to its right of way through the city.

All of the members of the committee were present, and after hearing from Engineer Seymour, of the road, and Mr. A. L. Adamson, they went into secret session and were engaged for a considerable length of time in examining the ordinance.

ERECT A DEPOT.

It was found that the ordinance, in the preamble, agrees to erect a freight and passenger depot in Manchester, but no mention of the matter is made in the body of the paper. There were also some questions of grade to be disposed of.

The ordinance was accordingly referred to City-Attorney Clopton and Engineer Seymour for amendment.

Mr. Seymour asked that a meeting of the Council to consider the question be called as speedily as possible, and President Franklin promised to convene the body immediately upon the presentation of or a petition signed by as many as five members.

FUNERAL OF MR. ANDREWS.

Mr. H. B. Andrews, after a short illness, died at his residence, No. 307 west Thirtieth street, Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock, aged 35 years. The deceased was a well-known engineer, and had many friends who regret his death.

He leaves his wife and four young children, Mrs. Brothers—Messrs. E. J., O. J., S. H. and S. E. Andrews, of Manchester, and Wm. E. of Chesterfield—one sister—Mrs. J. D. Marsh, of Chesterfield.

The funeral took place from Fifth Street Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Revs. J. S. Wallace and J. A. Spencer. The interment was in Maury cemetery.

Wm. Barnes, colored, was playfully wrestling with a companion up upper Hull street Saturday evening when he was thrown heavily to the ground. In the fall his collar bone was broken in two places. He went to the office of Dr. Lawrence Ingram, who, in the capacity of City Physician, treated him and sent him home.

Mr. B. M. Robinson, whose name has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the Legislature, is not a candidate. He says his business is such as to prevent his giving the proper attention to the place.

BIRTHDAY BOXES.

On next Thursday night the birthday boxes distributed among the members of Clifton-Street Baptist church will be opened by the Ladies' Aid Society, at which time an entertainment will be given in connection with the exercises.

Mr. Simpson of Richmond, who delighted in Clifton street, will be in a recent entertainment will be present, and a musical program, which will be very entertaining, will also be rendered.

The exercises will take place in the large yard of Judge Gregory, opposite the church. No admission fee will be charged. These boxes when opened will be turned over to the benefit of the church and the church will then be in a position to look for a pastor, as it has been their intention not to call a pastor while they were here.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday morning a colored woman named Jaelah Hix, was fined $2 for being disorderly and obstructive.

The case of Charles Robinson, colored, who was alleged to have assaulted young W. H. Canady several weeks ago, was dismissed, as no evidence to his guilt was forthcoming.

BIRTHDAY BOXES.

On next Thursday night the birthday boxes distributed among the members of Clifton-Street Baptist church will be opened by the Ladies' Aid Society, at which time an entertainment will be given in connection with the exercises.

Mr. Simpson of Richmond, who delighted in Clifton street, will be in a recent entertainment will be present, and a musical program, which will be very entertaining, will also be rendered.

The exercises will take place in